Home Care & Hospice.

Choosing your employer is one of the most important decisions you will ever make. Along with competitive pay and benefits, there are many factors to keep in mind when searching for your employer. You'll want to know:

Will my work be meaningful?

What training and support will I receive?

Is my employer family-friendly?

What will my coworkers be like?

How long has the company been in business and do they have a good reputation?

What does the future of the company look like?

Why Should You Choose Oxford?

In addition to competitive pay and a long list of benefits, Oxford HealthCare provides a supportive working environment where you can make a difference in the lives of others.

Meaningful & Rewarding Work

Your career says a lot about who you are, and nothing compares to having a job that you know makes a difference. At Oxford you will have an opportunity to care for people in their own homes and touch the lives of others. Our employees are the only people some of the clients see, and many would not be able to stay in their homes without us.

Paid Training & Support

Employees are much happier and more successful when they feel well-trained and comfortable in their positions. At Oxford we provide paid orientation, classroom training, on-the-job training and inservices. Tuition reimbursement is available for those who desire more specialized training. Our phones are answered 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, so there is always someone available to give you the support and help you need.

Family-Friendly Environment

Many times it is difficult to balance the needs of a family and the demands of a career. At Oxford, we offer a supportive environment and flexible schedule to allow you to be there when your family needs you. Our supervisors are caring people who strive to meet our employees' needs as well as those of our clients.

Qualified & Caring Coworkers

It is important to work with people who are not only qualified, but also have similar values. At Oxford, our employees are dedicated to making a difference in the lives of people. We conduct extensive employee screenings and background checks, so only the best wear the Oxford name. Oxford employees are very caring people who like to give back to the community.

Respected Employer

Working for a stable company with a good reputation brings peace-of-mind along with a sense of pride. Oxford HealthCare has provided services throughout southwest Missouri since 1974. More physicians and families choose Oxford than any other provider, and we have been recognized as the “Best Home Health Care Agency” in the area.

The Future Shines Bright at Oxford

Health care is one of the fastest growing career fields, and with the aging population, the need for home care will continue to grow. Oxford continues to be the innovator and leader in the home care field.

Our Employees Say:

“I feel like I really make a difference and I’m happier since I’ve been with Oxford.”

—Pam

“I love my job because it gives me the feeling of self worth and my clients make me smile and feel good about myself. I love to make my clients smile and to do the things for them that they can’t do for themselves anymore.”

—Roberta

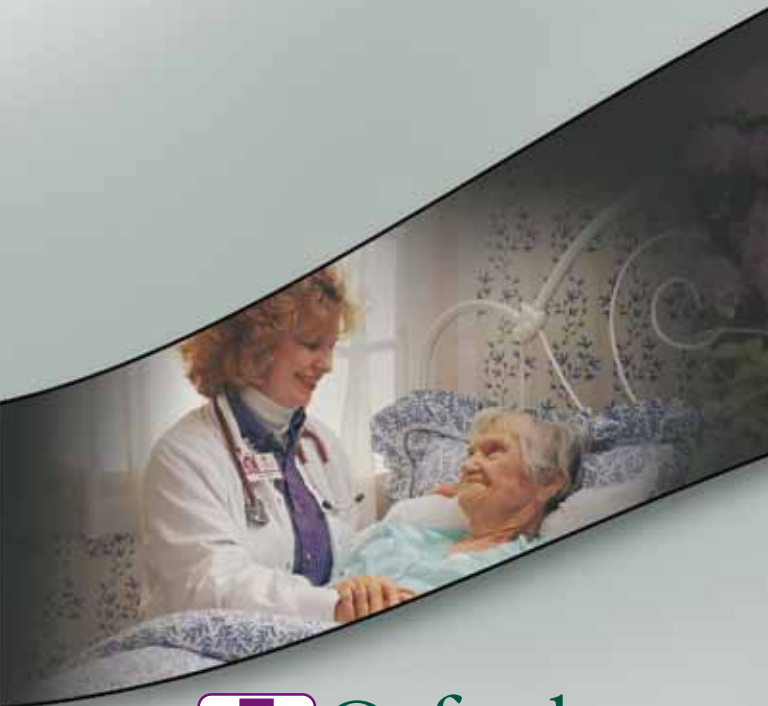

“It’s very rewarding just being there and being able to do little things they are unable to do and brighten their day. They are so excited when it’s the day for you to come and see them. At the end of the day when it’s time to go home, it makes you feel good and rewarded that you have helped someone.”

—Cristina
